Details about event:

Event: Awareness Programme on Ragging

Date of Event: 07/12/2023

Resource Person:

- Ms. Shabeena Momin (Asst. Prof. KMES College of Education)
- Ms. Monisa Momin (Asst. Prof. KMES College of Education)

Objectives:

- To orient the students regarding Ragging issues.
- To provide tips and tricks to tackle Ragging issues
- To create awareness regarding legal actions and different Acts.

Description of event :

An awareness session on ragging was conducted by KMES College of Education on 07th December, 2023 with the aim to educate students and stakeholders about the harmful effects and legal consequences of ragging. The session aimed to foster a safe and inclusive environment within educational institutions.

The session commenced with an introduction by the resource person – Ms. Shabeena Momin (Asst. Prof.- KMES College of Education), outlining the importance of addressing the issue of ragging and promoting a conducive learning environment. A keynote address by a prominent figure in the field of education or law enforcement provided valuable insights into the legal and ethical aspects of ragging. The session proceeded with presentations by Ms. Monisa Momin (Asst. Prof.- KMES college of Education), who delved into the psychological effects of ragging on victims, the sociocultural factors contributing to ragging, and the legal framework in place to prevent and address ragging incidents.

Interactive sessions, including panel discussions and group activities, facilitated active participation and engagement among attendees. Participants had the opportunity to share their perspectives, experiences, and concerns related to ragging, fostering a sense of community and solidarity. Speakers clarified the provisions of the Anti-Ragging Act and emphasized the importance of reporting ragging incidents promptly. They also provided information about the roles and responsibilities of students, faculty members, and institutional authorities in preventing and addressing ragging. Furthermore, testimonials from survivors of ragging incidents served as powerful reminders of the human cost of this harmful practice, inspiring empathy and commitment among attendees to work towards eradicating ragging from educational institutions.

Outcome:

The awareness session on ragging concluded with a pledge by participants to uphold a zero-tolerance policy towards ragging and to actively promote a culture of respect, empathy, and inclusivity. Attendees expressed their commitment to supporting victims, reporting incidents of ragging, and collaborating with institutional authorities to create safe learning environments.

Moving forward, it was emphasized that sustained efforts, including regular awareness campaigns, counseling support for students, and strict enforcement of anti-ragging policies, are essential to prevent and eliminate ragging from educational institutions. The session served as a catalyst for collective action and reaffirmed the importance of collaborative efforts in safeguarding the well-being of students and upholding the values of dignity and respect in academia.
